Key tips and techniques to optimize cash flow and working capital in SAP ERP Financials

Brian Shannon, Director of Business Process Automation, Dolphin
Wednesday, March 17, 4:00 pm - 5:15 pm

Business process optimization expert Brian Shannon uses real-world examples to illustrate how to automate and streamline organizations' accounts payable and accounts receivable processes to optimize cash flow. The approach leverages standard SAP functionality, such as SAP Business Workflow and the SAP Content Server, to support organizations' working capital needs.

Shannon delivers proven tips to streamline the Accounts Payable process, reform Accounts Receivable cash bottlenecks, forecast cash flow and early pay discount opportunities, and improve the overall transparency and analytical capabilities of both of these critical working capital process components. In addition he discusses how to integrate existing Order-to-Cash or Procure-to-Pay processes and components seamlessly and will help attendees understand third-party solutions, such as e-Invoicing, OCR, Process Tracking Dashboard, Document Navigation, and Analytics that can help deliver automation and transparency to improve cash flow.

Bringing Home Accounts Payable to Gain Control of the Process

Dolphin customer with more than 150 plants worldwide.

Thursday, March 18, 11:45 am - 1:00 pm

Find out how this manufacturer tackled issues surrounding their outsourced accounts payable program by bringing these processes back in-house. Understand what deficiencies and gaps the current outsourced accounts payable and reporting solution created and how they developed an in-house process to resolve such issues. Hear firsthand details of the process they now use to address invoice receipt, workflow initiation, approvals and exceptions, posting, payments, and analytics.

Best practices for consolidating and retiring legacy systems without compromising access to important financial data and documents

Thomas Langner, Product Manager-ILM Suite, Dolphin

Thursday, March 18, 11:45 am - 1:00 pm

Not all legacy environments are created equal. Dolphin's Langner uses real-world examples to spotlight the tools and options available for system consolidation and legacy decommissioning, focusing on how to retain and manage critical historical financial data and documents while gaining significant cost savings by retiring and migrating data from multiple legacy systems to a single SAP global archive server.

Attendees can visit Dolphin at booth #545 to learn about the Dolphin platform and talk with experts on business process optimization, information lifecycle management and legacy decommissioning.
